this is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable in today s secular world the christian faith is viewed as only one aspect of what could be called religious life acknowledging this hendrikus berkhof begins this thought provoking study with a sketch of religion and faith in general before narrowing it down to a discussion of the specific place of christian faith beginning with the whole of reality makes it possible to use religion as the basis from which to acquire an understanding of the relevance of the christian faith for that total reality thus a study of christian faith can answer questions that deal with the place of humanity in the cosmos the meaning of life and existence the meaning of freedom and of death berkhof defines religion as the relation to the absolute faith is one step beyond religion as it is the establishment of god s relationship to his people christian faith builds on old testament faith because the promises of the old testament are accepted as being fulfilled in the ministry suffering death and resurrection of jesus christ for berkhof the study of christian faith is a systematic examination of the content of the relationship which god in christ has entered into with us because the study of the faith is systematic there must be an order to it this order varies from theologian to theologian for berkhof the starting point is revelation the sources and norms for our knowledge of god this leads to a discussion of god creation of the world and of human beings israel the person and work of christ the church and finally the renewal of the world and of humanity throughout the book berkhof comments on and often takes issue with systematic theologians of the past written for both the layperson and the scholar the text is interspersed with excurses set off in smaller type than the main text that cover specific subjects more thoroughly citing sources controversies and the like which will be of particular interest to theologians and students this newly revised edition a

john paul ii s faith and reason was written against a background of catholic scholarship focusing notably on the new testament st augustine s confessions st thomas s de veritate and the encyclicals of various pre vatican ii popes a detailed textually based critique of these early sources reveals inconsistencies and conceptual errors that are shown to carry over into faith and reason john paul ii s treatment of reason in particular turns out to be aberrant to the point of incoherence it is inconceivable how this reason could join with faith in a way that lifts the human spirit to a contemplation of truth as stated in the preface of the encyclical there is another sense of reason however which demonstrably is capable of cooperating with faith to achieve this effect this reason is free from the fetters of neo scholasticism that keep john paul ii s reason grounded the present study joins forces with the encyclical with a detailed example of this other sense of reason in action in this example new truths come to light regarding the complex relation between the first and the second great commandments

a recent survey found that a large majority of people who describe themselves as christians struggle with faith and often succumb to fear and unbelief the enemy has used our lack of understanding along with fear and unbelief to rob us of our inherited blessings through christ for many faith has become a social media hashtag or some positive force that everyone can access to facilitate a better life however faith is not a social media hashtag nor is it some positive force flowing throughout the universe that we tap into like a star wars jedi the faith of the bible also known as kingdom faith is the key to experiencing the manifestation of what god has freely given to every believer everything that our lord and savior provided through his death burial and resurrection is available and accessible by faith throughout the pages of this book we explore what i call the process of kingdom faith webster defines a process as a series of actions or steps taken to achieve a particular end just as there is a process to installing software on a computer or baking a cake there is also a process to receiving what god promised in his word the process of kingdom faith incorporates various faith principles to move us from an expectation of the promises being fulfilled to experiencing the manifestation of those promises it is my prayer that this book will lead you to a more intimate relationship with the lord and will allow you to take full advantage of the benefits that god has given you through faith
